705 Columbus Way, Newmarket, ON L3X 2M7, Canada

While Sir William Mulock Secondary School has strong ties to the past, it is committed to developing the knowledge, skills and attitudes of its students as 21st Century Learners. Our blended learning program, which marries the use of personal technology with strong instructional practices, seeks to prepare our students for life beyond high school in the 21st Century. Our focus on technology serves to enhance the learning environment provided by our teaching and support staff. While the integration of technology is unique to Sir William Mulock Secondary School, it is not the only notable feature of the school. Sir William Mulock Secondary School provides a variety of courses to support the variety of learning needs for the students in our community. The school provides programs at the locally developed, applied and academic levels. We offer a full range of programming, including Music, Drama, and Broad Based Technology programs. We offer Advanced Placement courses, and house a High Performance Athlete program.

Sacred Heart Catholic HS

2.45 KM away

High

908 Lemar Rd, Newmarket, ON L3Y 1R9, Canada

In the early '50's a Catholic High School called Sacred Heart was operated by the Sisters of Providence. The school was located in King Township and serviced pupils from the northern part of York Region. The York Separate School Board opened the doors of Sacred Heart Junior High School in September 1979, providing 265 students with a Grades 7 to 9 program. A building program was undertaken and beautiful new facilities were made available to students in September 1983. The student population continued to increase and a new addition to the building was opened in May 1987. In 2002 two new additions were added. Another major renovation took place in the summer of 2004. The entire second floor of the western wing received new Science Labs and Art Rooms.
